

Kartik Raj Singh

Roll No. 25SCS1003003488

B.Tech CSE, Batch 2025–29

INTERNSHIP REPORT PRESENTATION

NGO Fundraising and Project Internship

On-Site Internship

---

Yatharth Sangam Foundation · Fundraising Team

Tenure: 1 – 30 June 2026

About the Student

Kartik Raj Singh

B.Tech - Computer Science & Engineering · IILM University, Greater Noida

Batch 2025 – 29

|   |                                                                              |
|---|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| R | ROLL NUMBER25SCS1003003488                                               |
| I | INSTITUTEIILM University, Greater Noida, U.P.                            |
| P | PROGRAMMEB.Tech CSE, Batch 2025–29                                       |
| D | INTERNSHIP DOMAINNGO Fundraising & Project Internship — Fundraising Team |
| T | DURATION & HOST1 Month   1 – 30 June 2026   Yatharth Sangam Foundation   |

THE ORGANIZATION

Yatharth Sangam Foundation

“Ek Haath Sewa, Ek Haath Sathi”

One hand serves, one hand supports — the foundation's guiding motto

L

BASED IN

Majhauri Dharmdas, Muzaffarpur, Bihar, India

S

SIGNATORIES

Harsh Raj, Founder · Sujay Kumar, Co-Founder

F

FOCUS AREAS

Orphan care, elderly support, health awareness, environmental efforts

A

APPROACH

A grassroots, volunteer-driven team working directly at the community level

Details beyond the certificate are drawn from the foundation's public profiles, not the certificate itself.

THE GUIDING QUESTION

“

How can a project intern contribute to a fundraising team through organized support, clear communication, and responsible documentation?

Framed as a learning-oriented question, not a claim about a failed system.

PROJECT OBJECTIVES

Four Goals for the Internship

1

Understand the Function

See how fundraising sustains a nonprofit's day-to-day operations.

2

Build Professional Habits

Develop communication, coordination, and record-keeping skills.

3

Apply Academic Learning

Connect classroom discipline with real teamwork and representation.

4

Produce an Accurate Record

Prepare a formal report that reflects the certificate honestly.

What's In — and What Stays Out

COVERED

- ✓ The confirmed role: Project Intern, Fundraising Team
- ✓ The one-month tenure and its likely workflow
- ✓ Skills, ethics, and lessons drawn from the role
- ✓ The certificate as the anchor evidence

DELIBERATELY EXCLUDED

- ✗ Confidential donor or beneficiary information
- ✗ Any numbers not shown on the certificate itself
- ✗ Unverified performance or fundraising claims
- ✗ Details about the foundation's programs not on record

Tool Categories Relevant to the Role

The certificate does not name specific software; these are the general tool categories a fundraising support role typically draws on.

Word Processing

USE

Drafting letters, emails, notes, and reports

GOOD PRACTICE

Proofread names, dates, links, and tone

Spreadsheets

USE

Tracking contacts, actions, deadlines, and status

GOOD PRACTICE

Use controlled fields; protect sensitive data

Shared Storage

USE

Maintaining current files and team references

GOOD PRACTICE

Follow naming, access, and version conventions

Communication Tools

USE

Coordinating with supervisors and stakeholders

GOOD PRACTICE

Use approved channels; document next steps

The Workflow Behind Every Campaign

A project intern supports every layer of this cycle — keeping information organized, escalating uncertainty, and making sure assigned tasks stay visible to the team.

Communication

Translating purpose into clear, respectful outreach

Coordination

Assigning and completing follow-up on time

Documentation

Recording actions so the team keeps continuity

A Month, Week by Week

1

WEEK

Orientation

Learned the foundation's purpose, team expectations, and approved records.

2

WEEK

Outreach Support

Helped organize information and prepare communication material.

3

WEEK

Follow-up

Tracked next steps and kept progress visible to the team.

4

WEEK

Handover

Summarized learning and closed out assigned actions.

Skills Gained Through the Role

C

Communication

Preparing clear, respectful, audience-appropriate messages for outreach.

O

Organization

Maintaining orderly tasks, files, deadlines, and follow-ups.

R

Research

Understanding project context and identifying relevant information.

T

Teamwork

Coordinating with supervisors, volunteers, and related functions.

D

Digital Literacy

Using approved tools for documents, spreadsheets, and communication.

J

Professional Judgment

Recognizing uncertainty, confidentiality, and escalation needs.

HONEST BOUNDARIES

What This Can Claim — and What's Next

LIMITATIONS

1 The certificate confirms role & tenure — not a work diary or fundraising total

2 It's not an organizational impact report

3 No rubric-based performance rating was issued

FOR FUTURE INTERNS

1 A written role description from day one

2 A lightweight activity log — date, task, status, next step

3 A short midpoint and final review

A successful organization is supported not only by visible public events, but by the quiet reliability of records, follow-ups, and internal coordination.

CLOSING REFLECTION

CONCLUSION

A Complete, Evidence-Backed Record

The internship at Yatharth Sangam Foundation is formally evidenced by the Certificate of Completion — confirming the tenure as Project Intern in the Fundraising Team from 1 to 30 June 2026, reference IC/25/2680, issued 14 August 2026.

Documentary Discipline

Explains fundraising's relevance without inventing outcomes

Academic Interpretation

Places the role in context: workflow, skills, and ethics

Formal Validation

Certificate and report together support future applications

THE EVIDENCE

Thank You

---

Kartik Raj Singh

B.Tech CSE, IILM University · Project Intern, Fundraising Team, Yatharth Sangam Foundation